

Local Food and Community Self-Governance Ordinance of 2012

An Ordinance to Protect the Health and Integrity of the Local Food System In the Town of Livermore, Androscoggin County, Maine.

Section 1. Name. This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the "Local Food and Community Self-Governance Ordinance."

Section 2. Definitions.

As used in this ordinance:

- (a) "Patron" means an individual who is the last person to purchase any product or preparation directly from a processor or producer and who does not resell the product or preparation.
- (b) "Home consumption" means consumed within a private home.
- (c) "Local Foods" means any food or food product that is grown, produced, or processed by individuals who sell directly to their patrons through farm-based sales or buying clubs, at farmers markets, roadside stands, fundraisers or at community social events.
- (d) "Processor" means any individual who processes or prepares products of the soil or animals for food or drink.
- (e) "Producer" means any farmer or gardener who grows any plant or animal for food or drink.
- (f) "Community social event" means an event where people gather as part of a community for the benefit of those gathering, or for the community, including but not limited to a church or religious social, school event, potluck, neighborhood gathering, library meeting, traveling food sale, fundraiser, craft fair, farmers market and other public events.

Section 3. Preamble and Purpose. We the people of the Town of Livermore, Androscoggin County, Maine have the right to produce, process, sell, purchase and consume local foods thus promoting self-reliance, the preservation of family farms, and local food traditions. We recognize that family farms, sustainable agricultural practices, and food processing by individuals, families and non-corporate entities offers stability to our rural way of life by enhancing the economic, environmental and social wealth of our community. As such, our right to a local food system requires us to assert our inherent right to self-government. We recognize the authority to protect that right as belonging to the Town of Livermore.

We have faith in our citizens' ability to educate themselves and make informed decisions. We hold that federal and state regulations impede local food production and constitute a usurpation of our citizens' right to foods of their choice. We support food that fundamentally respects human dignity and health, nourishes individuals and the community, and sustains producers, processors and the environment. We are therefore duty bound under the Constitution of the State of Maine to protect and promote unimpeded access to the local foods.

Local Food and Community Self-Governance Ordinance of 2012

The purpose of the Local Food and Community Self-Governance Ordinance is to:

- (i) Provide citizens with unimpeded access to local food;
- (ii) Enhance the local economy by promoting the production and purchase of local agricultural products;
- (iii) Protect access to farmers' markets, roadside stands, farm based sales and direct producer to patron sales;
- (iv) Support the economic viability of local food producers and processors;
- (v) Preserve community social events where local foods are served or sold;
- (vi) Preserve local knowledge and traditional food ways.

Section 4. Authority. This Ordinance is adopted and enacted pursuant to the inherent inalienable, and fundamental right of the citizens of the Town of Livermore to self-government, and under the authority recognized as belonging to the people of the Town by all relevant state and federal laws including, but not limited to the following:

The Declaration of Independence of the United States of America, which declares that governments are instituted to secure peoples' rights, and that government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed.

Article I § 2 of the Maine Constitution, which declares: "all power is inherent in the people; all free governments are founded in their authority and instituted for their benefit, [and that] they have therefore an unalienable and indefensible right to institute government and to alter, reform, or totally change the same when their safety and happiness require it"

§3001 of Title 30-A of the Maine Revised Statutes, which grants municipalities all powers necessary to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the Town of Livermore.

§211 of Title 7 of the Maine Revised Statutes which states: "it is the policy of the State to encourage food self-sufficiency for the State"

Section 5. Statements of Law.

Section 5.1 Licensure/Inspection Exemption. Producers or processors of local foods in the Town of Livermore are exempt from licensure and inspection provided that the transaction is only between the producer or processor and a patron when the food is sold for home consumption. This includes a producer or processor who sells his or her products at farmers' markets or roadside stands; sells his or her products through farm-based sales directly to a patron; or delivers his or her products directly to patrons.
